The Acknowledgements Issue –

We'd like to acknowledge all the people who helped make the 2009 – 2010 school year a success. Unfortunately, we know before we start that we will not be able to include everyone who did contribute and will only be able to highlight some individuals and groups. We'd like to thank the following:

- Susan Vickrey – the Superintendent, who is retiring this year for her years of service to K-12 education and improved the quality of education in PSD.
- Our beloved Ann Boland, who is also retiring this year who continues to teach everyone about compassion.
- Josie Petersen and Keith Wisell for overseeing the construction project for our upper grade classrooms.
- LSEA, the teachers' union, CSEA, the service workers' union and the District Staff who worked through some difficult negotiations in tough financial times.
- Karen Dwyer-Meadow and Paul Meadow, our outgoing PTO Presidents for serving the community for two years as our leaders.
- Our PTO board for providing leadership, spirit and creativity to our school
- Our incredible parent volunteers in the teaching creative arts, fundraising, staffing our library, chaperoning our field trips, the list of jobs goes on and on and everyone of them contributes to our children getting the best education possible.
- A special shout out to the aforementioned library volunteers: Marge Adams, Millie Barnett, Alex Bootzin, Padma Chathapuram, Helen Colombo, Jo Fox, Theresa Garza, Dave Godsoe, Evelyn Goins, Liz Gomez, Amy Guillet, Linda Harkness, Glenn Havlan, Debbie Hearne, Gwendolyn Holden, Madelene Kopperdahl, Ashley Larsen, Marilyn Lum, Susan Melville, Janice O'Brien, Peggy O'Brien, Nancy Rickson, Ann Rudorf, Clyde Sheets, Beverly Shoemaker & Beth Tokash

- The Wednesday Envelope Crew who put together the school and PTO communication packet: Craig Cummings, Stacey Mallick, Theresa Ganza, Melinda & Jason Terry, Cathy Galcia, Emma & Mike Wilson, Kathy H.
- Our fabulous teachers who bring the highest level of professionalism to their incredibly important vocation and share their love of learning with our children.
- Ila Dwyer, Don Potter, Meghann Elsbernd, and Kendra Crame for packing up their classrooms early and teaching out of makeshift classrooms to enable the construction crew to get a jumpstart on the project.
- Our phenomenal students who by and large are well behaved, come to school prepared to learn, and try their best to live up to the district's character traits: Respect, Compassion, Honesty, Integrity, and Responsibility.
- The Cabrillo Kitchen Crew for their professionalism and pride in their work.
- The Custodial Crew who every day attempt the impossible.
- Our incredible Special Education team including Erika Gardiner, Janet Nelles, Evelyn Lin, Joyce Narlock, Sue Beckmeyer, Nila Northrup for leveling the playing field.
- The Rob Schneider Music Foundation for 14 years of support.
- And Last and Not Least – Mary Griggi and Sandy Franco who keep that guy in the back office in line and on time; whose collective wisdom guide many a wayward student.

Cabrillo Receives the Spirit Award for the Junior Olympics

Erica Bigler and Jane Solano delivered the Spirit Award plaque to the Cabrillo office today. We are very proud of all the cheerleaders, athletes, volunteers and family members that played a part in our victorious efforts. The Cabrillo students have shown that they can commit to a goal, cooperate, work hard, help others, and be gracious as winners. Please come by and see the plaque. See all the results for Cabrillo on page 3.

Featured this week: Backstage scenes from the 7th grade play, “Not So Grimm Fairy Tales.” Familiar childhood stories retold with a funny politically correct slant. The entire school roared with laughter.

Creative Arts Tribute

A special message and photos from our Terri Andersen, one Cabrillo's of 2009-2010 Elna Flynn Winners and Creative Arts guru: I would like to thank the Creative Art teachers Karen Cravotto, Mark Sessler, Natalia Luna, and Sue Casas for teaching the upper grades at Cabrillo. I have worked with these teachers over the past six years. I truly appreciate their expertise in the classes they teach. Without these classes our students would not be as well rounded as they are. Karen teaches art, Mark teaches guitar, Natalia teaches drama and Sue teaches computer classes. My son, Michael and daughter, Jennifer have had these teachers and have enjoyed taking their classes. I will miss working with them; this is my last year at Cabrillo as Jennifer is graduating. I also wish to thank Lynn Mullen for working with me this past year; her efforts were much appreciated.
